After learning today about David passing away , I was reflecting on old memories and these made me smile. On Valentines day he took the ladder from the apt complex that the painter,s were using and climbed up to my balcony with flowers and gifts and asked me out to dinner. He fell off my sister's horse into the water barrel And got back on as if nothing happened. Then at the Atlantic ocean a crab bit him the same time a wave knocked his swim trunks down and he tumbled on the beach taking me with him. I will miss his smile and rejoice on the times he was there for me. He had a good heart and loved to enjoy life. My sincere sympathy to Peggy and family , Kathy Pezzi
