Mrs. Warf was a kind lady and I have known her almost my entire life. Got my first stitches falling into her basement when I was six years old and she was the one to give me first aid. She was one of the cleanest, neatest most organized people you could have ever met. Mrs. Warf raise two children who both turned out to be great adults and succesful in their chosen fields. This shows she was an insperation to them and I know she will be greatly missed.Louis T Washburn
