Elijah Alexander Britton-Abraham

FEB 29, 2012 - JUN 11, 2013

Elijah Alexander Britton-Abraham lived a life that seemed too short to many, but those who were touched by him understood the quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which we live. His smile could melt a heart of stone and, though he never spoke a word, his voice and thoughts could always be heard. He has shown us all the true meaning of eternal love and strength. It has been a tough battle, but he deserves to rest in sweet peace.

Little Elijah is survived by his parents, Hannah Britton and Marcus Abraham; grandparents, Donna and Phillip Britton, and Zemen Beru; great-grandparents, Barbara and Phillip Britton; uncles, Noah Britton and Abe Abraham; and aunts Lisa (Ian) Holt and Tina (Morris) Self.

The family will receive friends on Thursday, June 13th, from 5pm to 7pm. A celebration of life will be held in the chapel of Spring Hill Funeral Home and Cemetery on Friday, June 14th at 1pm, with Pastor Randy Cordell officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to the Elijah Abraham Fund at any First Tennessee Bank.

Hey buddy, it's daddy. Been thinking about you a lot here lately. Just wanted to stop by and tell you I love you and miss you so much. I was thinking about the times your mom and I would help you with your head control exercises lol, just your reactions and surprised look on your face would light up my day. I miss you Eli, can't wait till the day we see eachother and you jump back in my arms. I love you always.Daddy

No matter how bad a day I was having, when I would go on Facebook and see this angel baby's smile, even through all his struggles he had the brightest eyes and that smile on his sweet precious face -- just seeing his picture would always bring a smile to my face and in my heart -- Elijah is definitely one of God's greatest treasures and blessings sent to us. He had the most amazing Mom and Grandmother (and other family members) to love and take care of him.

Every morning for the past almost 16 months my day was begun by checking facebook to see if there were any new updates on the Little Prince Elijah. We've prayed, we've cried, we've begged our God for his mercies for little Elijah. But, we knew in our hearts that it was His Plan & not our plan that was important. I'm so proud to have shared his little walk on this earth. We love you dearly, Elijah. Enjoy Heaven little buddy - I can only imagine how wonderful it must be. I love the song 10,000 Reasons & I hold Jeremiah 29:11 close to my heart each & every day. I know we don't always understand the why's of things, but just knowing that God is in control, makes living so much easier. May you feel the love from those who love you, Hannah & share in your sorrow as well as your joy for Elijah's little golden wings. We love you & we're always here for you.

Hannah your son was Gods gift to you and this world....he was such a beautiful child and God knew you needed each other for that period he gave you Elijah. God didnt send his reasons in a message why Elijahs life was the way it was...but Elijah left us all touched and our lives changed for knowing him and you. God knew we all needed to have that child childin our lives. Elijah put us back on track, Elijah brought us on our knees not praying as one person but praying together all over the country, Elijah showed us what love is, you showed us what a mothers love is truely about. God is love, Love Wins. Even on our darkest days...Love Wins
