Josh, I am glad you were in my life back when. It was a joy to see how God changed your life. Of course, I am deeply saddened by this event. However, I will always remember you as being a fun silly young man with a contagious laugh. I will remember our camping trip and the other things we did together that bonded us as friends and brothers in the faith. ...Tommy A. Duncan

I am so very, very sorry to hear of Josh's passing. He was a dear friend of mine at Lee University and he will be greatly missed. We had a lot of fun with Pioneers for Christ, a club at Lee. Having personally lost a brother less than 2 months ago, I hurt deeply for your loss and your family and will be in deep prayer for your family. May the Lord soothe your broken hearts at this delicate time and may He provide you with friends and family to assist in comforting you. Always remember that the Lord himself is the author of comfort. My deepest condolences.~ Breanne Hunley (Miller) & Philip Hunley & Family

Josh was sincere young man with great abilities. It is sad that he was unable to recognize his potential and overcome his hurts and fears. He was a friendly, good, and loving young man.

Josh was one the first friends I made while at Lee he also invited me to Pioneers for Christ and it is because of him I met some life long friends. He always knew how to cheer me up and was the easiest person to talk to. My heart is heavy to hear that such a wonderful guy is gone from this Earth but is reunite with his family in Heaven! Absolutely in shock by this news. Josh was a great friend even though we didn't talk very often. I wish that were different now. I will always remember the joy he brought when all the guys were together at Lee U. He was the comedian and there were many nights spent in laughter that caused us to wake up the next day with sore stomachs. Josh was also an extremely intelligent individual. We had numerous deep conversations and many times we would debate different sides of an argument to the point of being red-faced and yelling only to burst into laughter. I will miss my friend and brother. I pray peace and grace for his family during this time. Isaiah 41:10
