HER SPIRIT WAS AS STRONG AS EVER, MAYBE STRONGER, BUT HER BODY COULDN'T KEEP UP THE PACE. I THINK HER ROOM WAS FULL THE NIGHT SHE PASSED...STANDING ROOM ONLY, WITH ALL OF HER FRIENDS AND OUR FAMILY THAT HAD GONE AHEAD AND WERE WAITING FOR HER TO JOIN THEM. I LIKE TO THINK SHE LOOKED BACK AND SAID ONE LAST I LOVE YOU TO ALL OF US. I WONDER IF SHE HAD HER EVENING GOWN ON OR HER SADDLE SHOES FROM HER YOUTH AS SHE FOLLOWED THE LIGHT AND DANCED HER WAY INTO HEAVEN.I LOVE YOU SISTER!KIT

I will always remember how caring and loving you we're. I am so blessed I had an aunt like you! I will always remember those Christmas days together with the family and when you made your famous chocolate fudge!! When you and dad would sit outside (dad would sneak you some cigs) and teach me some good life lessons. You and dad would tell me all the memories you had when you were my age. I will never forget those great talks:)I Love you!Your niece MelissaP.S. Like you say- I'm going to get it and go for the money!
