The first time I met this beautiful little lady was at the hospital when Maddox, her great grand child was being delivered who is also my grandchild. I noticed how petite and well dressed and groomed she was not to mention the biggest smile on her face. What an amazing personality and the kindness that was in her heart. God sends angels into our lives for a reason and I thank God everyday that she was a part of Davids life and how blessed he was to have such a loving kind woman as a grandparent/mom and how much my daughter Erika grew to love her. I know she will be greatly missed but never forgotten. They will forever have a guardian angel looking over them and Maddox.
