Linda Brooks Jones posted:

To Jack's grandchildren, niece and family. To me Jack was a true gentle man. He and Sarah were both people who had a positive influence on my life. When Sarah was in the hospital for kidney dialysis she asked me to go with Jack to Chattanooga where he was to sing with a Chamber group. When he sang a Victorian Love song I knew he was singing to Sarah and it brought tears in knowing he would have preferred to be with her, but was filling an obligation he had made to others. Know your grandfather loved you dearly and had nothing but confidence you would have a meaningful and full life. My life is less filled by his absence, but my life is enriched from knowing him. Please keep in touch. Linda Brook Jones, Grey Gables Bed and Breakfast Inn, Rugby, Tn
