Mr. Robert Hammett Dunbar

APR 11, 1931 - DEC 12, 2013

Robert Hammett Dunbar, age 82 of Nashville, TN passed away December 12, 2013. Mr. Dunbar was born April 11, 1931 in Roxbury, MA to Alfred and Helen Hobart Dunbar.

He moved to Nashville to attend the Auto-Diesel college. Over the years he worked as a welder for the Nashville Bridge Company and Reese Sheet Metal, as well as retiring after 28 years of service with Matlock Trucking and Trailer. While working for Nashville Bridge, he met and later married the former Betty Ruth Boyd. He loved cars and loved working on them. He attended Jackson Park Church of Christ.

He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Betty; daughter, Dianne (Ricky) Taylor; granddaughters, Christi and Kathy Taylor; many nieces, nephews and friends.

A celebration of Mr. Dunbar's life will be conducted at 11 A.M., Monday, December 16, 2013 from the Chapel of Spring Hill Funeral Home with Brother Jim Olive officiating. The family will receive friends from 2 PM until 6 PM on Sunday and 9 AM until 10:45 AM on Monday, prior to the service at Spring Hill Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be made to Alive Hospice, 1718 Patterson Street, Nashville, TN 37203. Arrangements entrusted to Spring Hill Funeral Home, Nashville, (615) 865-1101.

For Betty: My deepest sympathy to you and your family in the loss of your husband, Bob. I have fond memories of you and your mother from 12th Ave. many years ago. May you have comfort in the knowledge that you will see him again in that sweet by and by. Sincerely, Anita Davis St.Clair (daughter of Sewell and Mary Elizabeth Davis)

Bruce Joseph Dunbar posted:

I remember Bob, a long lost cousin, from when we were young. His parents were very proud of his achievements. My dad, Harold, sent Bob the measuring cup our grandfather, Joseph, made to qualify for a tinsmith apprenticeship graduation. Bob's middle name was passed down through three generations. Betty, you two spent a wonderful half-century together. Very few can make that claim. Betty and Diane: very sorry for your loss.
