You were my friend through high school and then after until we lost contact with each other. You had insights into my life I had never had in high school, and you weren't shy about sharing them. To know that you're gone breaks my heart as you were one of the truest friends I have ever had. I miss you, buddy.

I guess I will say it here since I couldn't seem to get the courage up to say it at the celebration of life. I will miss Fred soo much. I can honestly say Fred is the only person I have never been mad at. How could you be mad at him? He just had the biggest heart. He has been there to help me thru some painful times. His goofy laugh would always make me feel better. I will never forget the time he showed up on my doorstep saying he had just been kicked out and needed a place to stay. He comes in with a bag full of what should have been clothes but instead it was a bag full of jack daniels wine coolers. I aaked him where his clothes were and his reply was "who needs clothes? I only had time to grab important stuff." Later that night he saved my apartment from burning down. He was always there to hold my hand or give me a hug when needed. He was such a strong person. I WILL MISS YOU MY DEAR SWEET FRIEND AND I AM SOOO SORRY I DIDN'T GET TO SAY GOODBYE.
