I want to express my condolences to the family. Can you imagine a world where there will be no more suffering at all like this? Or sickness? I wanted to show you a bible prophecy shown at Isaiah 33:24 and Isaiah 24:8 where it talks about this and gives us an absolutely wonderful hope for the future. Soon, our imaginations will become a reality and we know this because "God cannot lie" (Titus 1:2). Knowing this when I lost one of my loved ones really helped my healing. So I wanted to share it with everyone else too. Please visit the bible based website jw.org , if you get a chance to, for more intriguing bible questions answered and once again, I'm so sorry for your loss. You'll be in my prayers.
