On behalf of the Division of Adult Education, I would like to express our deepest sympathy to Vicki's family, particularly her sons. Vicki was a vital part of our staff for many years and a delight and joy to work with. We were saddened and shocked to hear of her passing and want you to know that she remains in our hearts. We loved her. Our thoughts and prayers are with Bryan and Bradley and the rest of her family who loved her so deeply. Marva Doremus

I remember so many phone conversations Vicki and I had a few years ago. She was always so honest and funny. She never tried to put on an act she just said how she felt .. I wish I had stayed in closer touch with her these last few years. Rest in peace we love you I respect that so much because I'm the same way. She was a beautiful person both inside and out and I'm going to miss her so much
