Mrs. Connie Delaney Currey

AUG 11, 1937 - JUN 13, 2014

Mrs. Connie Delaney Currey, 76, a resident of Hendersonville, passed away on Friday, June 13, 2014 to be with her Savior Jesus Christ after a long and courageous battle with Parkinson's disease.

The Davidson County, Tennessee native was the daughter of the late James C. and Margaret Griffin Delaney. She was a member of Trinity Baptist Church in Hendersonville where she loved attending services and was frequently uplifted by cards, visits, and calls from her fellow members. In addition to being a homemaker, Connie spent many years modeling for Cain Sloan Department Store. She loved participating in fashion shows and several of her photo shoots found their way into magazines and newspapers. She became the editor of the Cumberland Magazine in Nashville. At one point, she moved to Florida and ventured into the world of marketing and started her own company CC Marketing. When she returned to Nashville, she started a family wedding chapel business with her sister and had the pleasure of seeing many couples share their vows in her chapel.

She is survived by a son, Robert Neil "Robb" (Teresa) Currey, Jr.; a sister, Donna D. Harrison; a grandchild, Ethan Michael Currey; a niece, Jennifer Wilkes; a nephew, Barry Harrison; a grand nephew, Conley Wilkes; a host of many other family and friends. She was formerly married to Robert N. "Bob" Currey, Sr., the father of their son.

I've been friends with Connie for a very long time; we both lived in Florida at the same time and also Tennessee. I will miss hearing your voice and seeing your creative talent. You're with the Lord now and I know you're happy . . .no more suffering. Judy Matthews
