Harold was always such a good guy - from the time I knew him in grammar school (as we called it in those days), through high school, and until the recent reunion when I was lucky enough to see his smiling face again. I send my deepest sympathies to you Janet and to the rest of his family. God bless you all. Michal Maunsell Boyle

We were so sorry to hear of Harold's passing. He was one of the good guys. Though we haven't seen him in person since we moved from Hendersonville (Next door to the Halls) in 1971, we have seen his hand in the camaraderie experienced by the Litton, class of '58, of which Jim is an honorary member. He will be sorely missed by his many friends. Jim and Glennon Cherry
