To Mot's Family, I have just now learned that Mot passed away. I got to visit her a few times at her home this last few weeks and had planned on visiting her on Sunday but found that she had passed away in the church bulletin. Wow what a woman! I did not know her well but in our few visits I learned that she was a woman who loved life and loved people and loved the Lord. I am praying for you all and here is my prayer "Dear Lord who knows all our needs, be with Mot's Family during this hard time. Let them rejoice in knowing that Mot knows Jesus well and is with Him now. Lord give them strength and give them peace. I ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen". God bless you all!! Have fond memories of Mott as a fun teenage cousin. Only got to be with her a few times. The last times I saw her she was very much enjoying the song and dance "The Twist." Had hoped to make it to Tennessee to see her again. Guess we will get to visit in heaven. May God be near and comfort your family in your loss of this precious lady. Bev Peterson
