Ms. Jane Elwood Howell Ralls

JUN 14, 1923 - NOV 18, 2014

Jane Elwood Howell Ralls, age 91 of Hendersonville. She was born June 14, 1923 in Nashville and died November 18, 2014.

She was preceded in death by parents James Head Howell and Corinne Kyle Howell; husband, Warner Tud Ralls.

Survived by brother James Justin Howell (Mary Ruth), nieces and nephew Lynn Howell King, Stephen Howell, Leigh Howell Dyer, and Donna Ralls Hiller.

Jane was born in Nashville, Tennessee on June 14, 1923. Her family made their home in East Nashville where she attended Jere Baxter Elementary school and graduated from Isaac Litton High School. In 1945 she married her high school sweetheart, Tud Ralls, on his return from serving in the Air Force and as a Prisoner of War in World War II. They made their home briefly in Nashville before moving in 1962 to Hendersonville where they made their permanent home. She worked for Associates Finance and for Dr. John Payne, dental office. She also worked for Monument Records in Hendersonville.

She was chairwoman of the young ladies' division of the Nashville Women's club and was a member of the Belmont Mansion Association.

Jane and her husband were benevolent givers and through the years gave strong support to Belmont College and to Davidson Academy, where she served on the board for 14 years. They also were passionate about their support for the Humane Society and together they funded and promoted the first Humane Society building in Sumner County.

She was a longtime member of Hendersonville First Baptist Church. In 1970 she and her husband Tud were founding members of Bluegrass Baptist Church in Hendersonville, a mission of First Baptist Church.

Jane was our neighbor on Sterling Road for 20 years. My husband and I worked in Nashville and were gone most of the day. But, she was always thoughtful and called or dropped by if there was any news or changes in the neighborhood. She shared our love of animals and called us several times when our dogs were out of their pen. She was a great neighbor and a wonderful lady. She will be missed. Claudia Viken

Jane was such a sweet lady. I knew her from working at Citizens Bank on Cherokee and Gallatin Rd. I loved our long conversations about Hendersonville and her early years in the business world. She was always top-notch in style and dress, just a jewel. Our love to her family. Rebecca Vanderpool and Bob
