For my Grandpa Bernie, a loving husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather. When All That's Left Is Love by Rabbi Allen S. Maller. When I die If you need to weep Cry for someone Walking the street beside you. You can love me most by letting Hands touch hands, and Souls touch souls. You can love me most by Sharing your Simchas (goodness) and Multiplying your Mitzvot (acts of kindness). You can love me most by Letting me live in your eyes And not on your mind. And when you say Kaddish for me Remember what our Torah teaches, Love doesn't die People do. So when all that's left of me is love Give me away. ~And so we shall, Grandpa Thank you, God, for giving us this time together. Jennifer Cohen Cordero

Though my memories of Uncle Bernie go way... way, way back -- after all, I haven't actually seen him in about 40 years -- when I look at pictures of him, my heart grows 10 sizes bigger. He and my Poppa look like... like the brothers they are! A big sad warm loving hug to this beautiful family of mine.

Uncle Bernie, we have so many memories from long ago. I am grateful for them and think of you lovingly now and forever. How glad I am to reconnect with Robert & Jennifer. I offer condolences to Mark, Robert, Jennifer, and all our family. Love from Marabeth Cohen-Tyler
