My mom was the most amazing woman I have ever known. She taught me so much. She taught me to love above all else. She was my rock, my best friend, and the one person I knew I could turn too. She treated my children as if they hung the moon. She always said that "GiGi's girls" were the best grandkids with the biggest hearts.... I have no doubt that they learned that from her. She made such a difference in so many lives and gave so selflessly all the way till the end. She never thought of herself and always wanted to care for others. She always worried about Seth, me, the kids.... even when we were worrying about her. I have so many wonderful memories with her. I remember her sacrificing so much for me.... even into adulthood. When I was a child she went above and beyond to make sure my brother and I had everything she could give us. She would work 12 hour shifts at night as a nurse and then spend all day running us to sports, pageants and school clubs. She never complained about it. She always encouraged us to do the best we could and even if we didn't win, succeed, or weren't the best she would just encourage us and tell us that she was still proud of us. My mom was truly an inspiring woman throughout her entire life. I was so blessed to have her as my mother.

Dearest Family, Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Susan was a wonderful person, and so easy to talk to. When I met her, I felt as though I had known her all her life. She embraced life, her patients, and her family with much love and respect. Sid..you were the best brother a gal could have. I know you and Andrea gave Susan the good life, taking her to the beach and the quality time you both spent with her in her final days. I know she is in Heaven smiling down rays of sunshine upon you all. Love Randall, Sharon, Tony, and Jena Shea Ambrose

I met Susan when I started being the care giver for her sister Kaffe Hemp. She had just been given the notice of the health issue with this battle of cancer. Even as she was getting sick while I was next door---she never let that stop her for being a loving a caring sister. If something was wrong she was the first one you could call on. She was a wonderful person to know and to see the love and caring she always hold in her heart for everyone was unbelievable.She was one to open her home to others no matter what the problem was. She loved her grand children; she talked about them all the time.The world has lost a wonderful nurse of many years but God needs her in the heavens now.Susan you will be missed and I am so proud that I got to know you.RIP dear one

My Husband and I met Susan and Rick and became VERY CLOSE! They were even our Bosses at McDonalds. Susan was a AWESOME BOSS! We went to their wedding, and afterwards started spending ALOT of time together when we were all off work. Went on several trips together, even to the Bahamas! We had a GRAND TIME! We were accepted into Susan's Family, and was included in every Family function. We loved Susan SO MUCH, and all of her Family! We would talk for hours on the phone! Sometime even up to midnight or later. Lol Susan, I considered not only my dearest and bestest Friend, but she was like a "Sister" to me. We told each other everything! I will miss her deeply, but I will always have my memories. I love you and you will NEVER be forgotten! You are no longer suffering, and you are now with your Mom, Dad, and Marianne. Rest in Peace my loving, sweet and dear dear Friend! Rosemary and Paul Sharpe

Susan had an infectious smile.....She and Rick were my youth leaders at Memorial Lutheran Church when I was a teen. In fact, they became my god parents when I was baptized there as well. I have many fond memories of working on the Senior Banquet, and other events. I tell people often that being a member of that church during my teen years was instrumental in teaching me to love and respect myself and others. Susan was at the core of those life lessons. My heart goes out to all of her family...the loss of a mother, grandmother, sister and friend is always hard. But I am certain that the Joy Susan brought them all will keep her alive in their hearts forever.
