It would take a hundred pages to share my memories of Martha. This family has been a wonderful part of my life. We have shared the joys of this life as well as all the sorrows for the pasted 40 years. I want to send my condolence to Steve and David and their families. I pray that the fond memories you have of your mother will help to sustain you through the grieving days ahead. Her loving heart and beautiful smile made you enjoy the visits with her..To David I want to express my gratitude for the most loving care and devotion anyone could give their mother. Steve I know you had your family to care for, but you loved your mother just the same and visited her as often as you could. My wonderful memories of your family will live dwell with me until my Blessed Savior calls me home and I can share the memories of life here on earth .May God's richest blessings be with you is my prayer. In loving memories; Bob White
