I was one of Art's dispatchers at Stevens. He was my favorite person to talk to and brightened my days. He talked very often of his family and missed them while on the road. He would laugh about videos his daughters had made, how each of his kids was doing in school (he was proud), and what a great wife he had for sticking with him while on the road so much. I was brought to tears when he was sick out west and came home a few years ago, but I was also happy to know he'd get to see you all for more than a few days. I feel so blessed having worked with such an amazing person and my family is praying for yours. My heartfelt sympathies. - Kristin Morley
