I will miss great aunt Harriette! What a beautiful woman! What a life! She is at peace now. Even as a kid I remember thinking she had the most beautiful skin and when she spoke, her voice was always so calm and sweet. So southern too! I have many great memories of her, especially when we would all visit together in Viola. Condolences to Connie and Thomas and all of those who loved her like I did.

My favorite Aunt Hartiett . . . We will miss your wonderful smile dearly. I recall all the wonderful times in Viola at Christmas with you and and family. I am sending love to my cousins, Thomas and Connie, who have been so great to take good care of you for many years! Eva Maddox
