Joyce posted:

Dear Shirley, So many good memories of you and Gerald in the Sunday School Class we shared, at Grace Baptist Church. Remembering one, on a cold, rainy, night our department went on a trip to Patti's for dinner. Gerald driving the old high top van, it was hard to hold on the road, he got us back safe. Gerald will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your families.
Love, Joyce & Billy Siever

Melissa lit a candle in honor of Gerald.

Gerald (Paw-Paw) was a wonderful father-in-law and grandfather to me and my girls. We have many happy memories of him that we hold deep in our hearts. Shirley (Maw-Maw), we are praying that God wraps his strong, loving arms around you to provide His comfort and strength; and, that He keeps happy memories alive in your mind daily so you will always feel Paw-Paw's love for you. We know that Paw-Paw is smiling down on all of us and he is sure to have claimed his angel wings. Warmest Thoughts and Sympathy, Melissa, Stephanie and Shelby

Shirley, We are thinking of you during this difficult time and remembering the fun times we spent with you and Gerald like when you visited us in Cincinnati and we took the carriage ride downtown, and when our family stayed with you and Gerald while attending the family reunion in Nashville. Love, Randy and Suzan Turner
