We are very sorry to learn of Pat's death. Since we live in Louisville, KY we did not know until after his funeral or we would have been there. Our condolences to Monica and children. We remember him entertaining our kids when we visited Aunt Gertrude and his great love of music. He was a wonderful person. Mary Ellen & Charlie Hamlet and family

Pat was kind and compassionate and even tempered. He kindly never made fun of me and my inferior basketball skills and for that I am ever grateful. Delaney loves him and your family. He will be sorely missed. May you find peace and we are praying for all of you. Erik Lang

Pat was such a wonderful man with a wonderful heart for others! He was always so helpful and kind. I have missed singing with him in Radio Daze Big Band the past couple of years. He has been in my thoughts and prayers, and I am glad that He is now in the eternal presence of our Heavenly Father. My thoughts and prayers continue to be with his family.

Pat was part of a band that I played in. (1978-79?) Had many memorable dates that we played and some not so memorable. Always remembered that he wanted to play "Play that funky Music, White Boy" and "Taking Care Of Business". Will always cherish his enthusiasm for music. He will be missed, but not forgotten. Mr Nolan, Patty are the names I called my Dear Friend. I had the great pleasure of getting to know Pat through my job. We worked many nights together and Always Laughed together and had such fun. I remember the night Pat's legs started shaking and he told me he needed to sit down or he was going to fall. That was the beginning of my friends journey and battle with cancer. We joked (mostly he did) that he was a slacker as that night I made sure Pat rested and I covered the work. I am only saying this as it became a signature that Pat used in the text's we shared, Pat Nolan Slacker Lol huge Smiles for him as I write this. We went to lunch many times after Pat wasnt able to drive and shared many conversations. I can say that Mr Nolan touched my Life in such a Lovely Possitive way and I Loved my friend and will miss his friendship terribly. God Bless Him, Monnie and All the Nolan Family, Love Always, Beth

I didn't know Pat early in his life, but I have valuable recent memories of picking him up at home frequently to make the trip to his favorite meal at Red Lobster. He had his regular sandwich, and our waitress always knew what he would order and greeted him warmly, cheerfully bring his food and telling him how happy she would be to see us on the next visit. He never forgot the take out bag of cheesy biscuits for Elizabeth. We made the rounds to pick up repair parts for things at home, and always had to check to see where Teddy was hiding. He even checked the new doorbell we installed.....every time he came home. Its ring was his theme music. How memorable are the simple things in life when you are around an extraordinary person like PAT. I will visit our restaurant soon, and alone, to enjoy his favorite sandwich, in his honor. May GOD Bless and protect you my friend, through all eternity. Jim Grant
