Amanda was one of those rare, beautiful people who lit up a room simply by walking in. And she never saw you without hugging you! Those are the things I will miss the most about her. I am so grateful that Amanda and I said "I love you" the last time we were together. That means the world to me as I think about life on earth without her. She deserves the richest of blessings and no doubt, she is on to her reward. Love and prayers (and a great big Amanda-sized hug) to her family. We are here for you. God Bless!

Amanda went to school with my son Adam. He thought the world of her. They hung out a lot and then both married different people and didn't see each other much. I would run into Amanda from time to time and she was always full of fun and laughter, I loved the way she spoke. She always had a hug for me. I'm so sorry for your loss but feel confident that it's Heaven's gain. Debbie Sartain
