Mrs. Mavella Wilkinson

JUL 2, 1934 - JAN 31, 2016

Mavella Ann Wilkinson age 81 of Springfield went home to be with her Lord and Savior Sunday January 31, 2016. A native of Wilson County, she was the daughter of the late Jesse and Mary Jenkins Hewgley. She is also preceded in death by her brothers; H.B. Hewgley, Leland Hewgley and Courtney Hewgley.

Mrs. Wilkinson is survived by her husband of 48 years Brodie Wilkinson, Sr., her son; Brodie (Olivia) Wilkinson, Jr., and her two loving grandchildren; Brodie Wilkinson III and Layne Wilkinson.

Mrs. Wilkinson was a member of Hendersonville Church of Christ. She loved and lived for her grandchildren to the fullest and worked hard as for keeping Brodie straight.

Visitation will be Wednesday from 5:00pm until 8:00pm at Spring Hill Funeral Home. Funeral services will be 12:00 noon Thursday with visitation beginning at 10:00am. Brother Drew Crosby will officiate with family and friends serving as pallbearers. Interment will follow at the Historic Spring Hill Cemetery.

Mavella came into my life 22 years ago, we became friend's. She was always there for me as a friend. I can't tell you how much I will miss the talks about our grandchildren . she loved BR and Layne. She helped me make important decisions in my life, She was honest with everyone she knew, I have lost my best friend, i know what she would say to me . I'm with our Lord and all my family that has passed on before me. She was a angel here on earth. love Victoria

I always enjoyed eating with Mavella and the family at Ross 's Place in Rivergate that he owned years ago. She helped Savannah learn to eat Fried Mushrooms by telling her they were chicken. LoL I feel that she and the rest of family were apart of my own family because I went to school with Brodie Jr. , and my daddy and her and Brodie Sr., did real estate investments a lot before he died in 2008. We love you and will miss you . Love Tabatha, Brian, and Savannah Bush
