Michael was a true friend indeed! His friendship and willingness to be there to talk is going to be greatly missed. I remember him telling me many times that i was a friend that he could really talk to about anything. I will treasure that. He really loved the beach. I'm glad I was able to provide him a place to stay on what he didn't know was his last visit to the beach. He hadn't been sleeping well, and told me this was the first time he had been able to sleep in a very long time. He said he woke up feeling rested and peaceful. Michael, now you can have all the peace you need...free from worry, stress, pain, and missing your angel, Cissy.I made a donation in Memory of Michael to the Survivors of Suicide Nashville in lieu of flowers.Karen McMahanMiramar Beach, FL

Not only did I loose a special person , cousin but feel as though I've lost a brother. Mike and I were very close. Mike had such a good heart. We were at the beach last summer and he seemed to be letting things in his life go, after the death of his wife. He so enjoyed just walking on the beach and watching the waves and picking up shells. I will miss Mike so much.Dena Allen Kilgore First cousin from Jonesville Virginia
