Artemus Flagg lit a candle in honor of Deandre.

My most sincerest and heartfelt condolences go out to the immediate and extended family of Mr. Deandre Tejan Kpana-Quamoh. As a former resident of Nashville, I was shocked to learn about the passing of a great young man with many positive qualities, ability and potential. Having already been a recipient of many accolades and accomplishments, we will never get to see Mr. Deandre's full potential come to fruition. I truly believe this young man accomplished more in his brief life time than many of us adults have done thus far. It is obvious that he was a positive beacon for people both young and old. Longevity is not promised to anyone but the quality of one's life speaks for itself. For those who knew Mr. Deandre, be grateful that God put you in his circle for a brief moment in time. I am sure his life is an inspiration for many youth...because of his morals, values and the manner in which he carried himself. Do not question...but accept because God doesn't make mistakes. Now that Mr. Deandre has crossed the bar (something all of us must do at life's end), we must now loose him and let him go. There is a brighter side somewhere and surely Mr. Deandre Tejan Kpana-Quamoh can walk around heaven all day. I will close with this quote: "Excellence is to do a common thing in an uncommon way" (Booker T. Washington). Respectfully submitted by: Artemus Flagg, Ph. D., LPC of Charlotte, North Carolina.

I was one of Deandre's many teachers. I can not express enough how heartbroken I am over the loss of KP. He was an amazing guy with so much potential and an even brighter future ahead of him. He wasn't just another student to me I loved him dearly. He exhibit all the qualities of what success is suppose to look like. My life is forever changed by his passing. My prayers are extended on behalf of all of those that were blessed enough to be touched by his life and saddened by his death.

You both have so much to be proud of in Deandre's life. And you have made me and all who know you proud, too, because we can see so much of you both in Deandre's many wonderful achievements, and in his character, and sense of humor. In this time of sorrow, mixed with gratitude for the sheer joy of Deandre's life, please know we are with you, we are her for you, and that there is boundless love and prayer being offered for your family from all that know and admire you both.
