I remember when your mom would come to the Stanford Montessori to visit or help. She was always such a kind soul and willing to help.

So sorry to hear of your loss. Alice was a wonderful person and very loving mother and grandmother. She and I worked together at SBA for several years and she taught me so much. She was a special friend and am sorry we sort of lost touch after her retirement. Sorry I can't come to the funeral, but know your family is my prayers and thoughts. Myra Fisher, Carthage TN

I have known Alice for more than thirty years and will never forget this very kind and special lady. When I was around her, I always felt comfortable, valued, and knew we could share a good laugh over something silly when given the opportunity. Even in death, Alice has the last laugh on me, I never knew her first name until now. I always assumed it was "Alice."
