Barbara Love Garrison was an Amazing and a very Gracious Woman that has ever entered my life. She showed me how to be a lady in every since of the word. Thru trials and tribulations she walked thru it all with her head held high, showing me love and eternal friendship. Barbara you will always be a HUGE part of my heart and I hope to one day see you again. Lynette, Lainey and Danny you had a Mom that simply loved you and when she spoke of you her heart smiled. Thru it all you were blessed. I will always she think of your Mom each time I turn on the Grape Light! I love you! I LOVED your Mom!!! Sincerely, Vicky Laws

My Aunt Barbara was a very lovely and regal lady. I remember all the "Labor Day" family reunions years ago that she and her family attended. Always a pleasant smile, words of encouragement, and when us kids needed it ... a firm reprimand! I know her family will miss her immensely. Thoughts and prayers from the Tim & Lee Ann Garrison family

My sincere condolences to Barbara s family. Thank you Lynette for keeping me up to date during the time when Barbara was unable to use her phone. Danny, Lynette and Lani, please find comfort in knowing she loved you all unconditionally and even though I was not "family" she always shared so many memories and moments with me being so proud of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, that I felt as I followed all your lives.Barbara was my friend, confidant, co-worker and partner in crime who I will never forget. We shared good times and bad and always ending our conversations with a good laugh.I will keep her and you all in my prayersJanet Griggs FILMCO INDUSTRIES the best times of our lives!!!!
