My first impression of Jacob was what a good son he was to his mother. Although I never met his mother I saw him with her before I knew him at Krogers. I knew that he worked at JcPenneys as did I, but we worked different shifts and I never had a chance to talk to him. On the day I saw them he had his arm around her and they walked through the store laughing and just enjoying their time together getting what they needed. Some kids never let their parents know how much they love them but on that day it was very clear how much his mother meant to him. I was so touched by his kindness towards her that the next time I saw him at work I mentioned it to him. From that day forward he was my friend. To me he was one of the funniest people I have ever met. I feel very lucky to have met him. I am very sad that he is gone. RIP sweet Jacob. You will be missed. Your friend, Nina Jones

We are saddened to hear of the loss of such a good natured, witty and fun loving young man. Jacob and Brandon were best friends at Davidson Academy as well as attending church together at City Road. Brandon could always count on Jacob being his best fan and supporter. We will miss Jacob here on earth but God is receiving a blessed soul in heaven. Our condolences to James and Anita and the Fullerton family. God bless this family in this time of grief and provide your healing touch. Richard, Denise, Brandon, Donna and Andrew Swint

An unlikely friendship. Almost 2 decades in age difference, we were thrown together under less than desirable conditions, but clearly friends we indeed became. Working alongside each other for several years, we formed a bond that was that of brothers. There is a hole in my life now but I know in my heart that Jake is a place where there is no pain, no worry, no clock to punch. A place where there is only love. Rest well Young Jake. Until we meet again on that beautiful shore.

I haven't spoke to Jacob in a few years but I will never forget his sense of humor that could light up any room. I worked with him at JCPenney and all of us that worked with him was constantly laughing at him. Jacob used to bring these white cowboy boots with chains under the heel to work and he would place them above the top of his locker. We would all laugh because we always knew it was about to go down when we seen them books on the locker. He was such a nice man and I will forever cherish the two years I got to work with him and all the funny memories he would bring to the people around. God Bless his family in this time of healing.

This saddens me to hear the loss of such an amazing person. My first couple of years at JC. Penneys wouldnt have been the same without him. He always put a smile on my face. I always looked forward to working with this silly, full of life, handsome man. He will be surely missed by many. Condolences to his family. Rest easy my friend.

I love Jacob like a little brother. I will never forget the time, Glynda was on the roof to clean the gutters. It was scarier than it looked. She got down and saw Jacob. She said " Hey Jake want to make some money" I swear he would have done anything for anybody, no questions asked. I know he is in Heaven. I know ,because he was an Angel on this earth. Rest in Peace my friend, I will always miss your smiling face.
