Mrs. Patsy Sowell

NOV 21, 1925 - OCT 24, 2016

SOWELL, Patsy M – Died October 24, 2016. Predeceased by her loving husband for 54 years, J.D. (Sam) Sowell. Visitation will occur Wednesday October 26, 4 – 8PM. A graveside service will be conducted Thursday, Oct 27, 11 AM at the mausoleum in Spring Hill Cemetery.

Patsy was born in Baxter, TN to parents Oaks and Virginia McBroom.

Patsy was a spirited woman, and devoted daughter, mother, grandmother, aunt, niece and cousin. She (predeceased) had nine siblings including Dot, Dimple, Houston, Ralph, Cecil, Lehman, Clarence, Betty, and Ethel. Between she and Sam, she had over 100 nieces and nephews.

She was mother to Joanie Dixon (Dean Dixon) and Jeff Sowell (Jenni Vaught). She had two grand-daughters, Samantha Grayce Sowell and Sabrina Gabrielle Sowell. Patsy and Sam were founding members of the Madison Church of Christ and later, Patsy was a member of the Goodlettsville Church of Christ. Patsy and Sam loved Bluegrass Music and helped launch Larry's Grand Ole Garage which still operates today and fondly remembers them both.

Patsy owned and operated Sowell's Beauty Salon for years in Madison and was known for being dedicated to each of her customers. Her salon was affectionately known as a source for "news" for the local paper.

In addition to her cosmetology skills, Patsy was known as quite the "country cook" in the day. She always had a plate for unexpected guests which would not only include family friends but sometimes the likes of the cast of Hee-Haw, relatives, persons in need and neighbors.

She was one of kind and will be truly missed by her family, customers, neighbors and fellow church members.

RIP, Patsy...we love you.

Dirk Klumb lit a candle in honor of Patsy.

I remember Patsy as a generous hostess and a good cook. She always took very good care of us. She really managed to make us feel right at home. In deepest sympathy, Dirk Klumb, Cologne, Germany

I just learned of Mrs. Sowell's death. I'm sorry that I could not attend the visitation. My family often spent time with the Sowell's at church events, and I have fond memories of that. My sympathy to the family. Linda Wooten Highers

I am so blessed to have known and share a few things with her about my family. I knew of her but not really about her until right before her passing. I can say with love and admiration that she was one of the sweetest, caring person I know of if it was for only a very short time, she was my aunt. Say hi to my mom and dad for me aunt patsy. I love you. Patricia Gail McBroom Faulkner

Mrs. Sowell had a beauty shop on a street across Gallatin Rd. From Madison Square in the 60s. She "did" my hair for my proms in 1964 and 1965 and "did" my special style for my Senior picture in 1965. I will never forget the way she made me feel so important as a teen age girl!!!! We lived in Madison but were zoned for Goodlettsville schools. Great memories!!! Thankful for her!!!! God bless and comfort her family. Debbie (Cummings) Knight
