Dear Marylou, Charles and family, I remember like it was yesterday when Matt and Steve were in 7 - 8 grade, and Don and I had our foster son R.D.. he loved going to your home. He thought you were one cool mom. Meeting Matt and Steve he decided he wanted to be like them and baptized into the Catholic Church. Thank you Matt and also Steve. Now you young men have your own special guardian angel. Love you, mary hancock hunt

I remember Matt's smile when he was little. He and Steve and Robert used to play and Matt's smile was contagious. I think it was his Mother's smile. His whole face was part of it. That's what I am seeing over these past couple of days. I love you Mary Lou and your family. I wish I could take away the sadness. Always remember Matt's smile. Love, Patty Needham
