Kenny, I am sad for you during this time. I remember all the wonderful Thanksgiving meals that Aunt Peggy and my mom cooked while we stayed a long weekend at their home. Many of these were before you were even born, but your mom was always so loving, sweet, and kind. Now, that I really think about it, the interstate was not even there and, we were traveling the road looking for falling rocks. There were signs everywhere announcing the possibility. I hope that you have only good memories. Brenda

Mrs. Williams posted:

The death of Mrs. Peggy Jones Tate is the most devastating experiences a family can face. At times, the loss may seem unbearable. Please know that there are those who care and more importantly Psalm 34:18 tells us that "God is near to those that are broken at heart. Jehovah is the God of all comfort. My prayers are with you and your family.
