"Elizabeth Ann" & I were fellow classmates of the DLHS Class of 1966. I remember her as a sweet, caring person who was always kind to other people. My thoughts & prayers are with all her family during this time. I regret that I was out of town with my family last week so I was unable to come by for the visitation or to attend the memorial service. I pray your hearts will be filled with sweet memories of your precious mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, & sister. Debbie (Butler) Brewer

i came to know Elizabeth while visiting her through the Homebound Ministry of Hermitage Hills Baptist Church. We soon became close friends. Elizabeth was upbeat and cheerful despite her many health issues. Through it all she praised her Savior, Jesus Christ. She prayed beautiful prayers for her family and friends. Elizabeth loved a good laugh and watermelon shushes from Sonic! I will miss her dearly.
