Mrs. Sandra "Sandi" Jean Mason Johnson

AUG 1, 2017

Sandra "Sandi" Jean Mason Johnson, 65 of Gallatin, TN passed suddenly in St. Augustine, Florida on August 1, 2017. She is preceded in death by her parents, Alfred and Louise Mason.

Sandra was born in Nashville, TN and was a graduate of Stratford High School and Belmont University. She was a dedicated science teacher in Metro Nashville Public Schools for 30 years. During her career she led her students to excel in national science competitions and was the recipient of many awards acknowledging her outstanding teaching achievements. She was a lifelong member of Eastland Baptist Church.

Family and friends were her delight. She loved her grandchildren and was fortunate to spend much of her recent years with them. She will be remembered for her welcoming and loving nature, the love of her cats, and her superb cooking. She prepared and shared many treasured family recipes and won several first place ribbons for her canning abilities. Her memory will live on in those who were fortunate enough to know her.

Survived by her loving husband, Joe Johnson, dear children include Josie Johnson (John) Whetstone, Ashley (Christy) Johnson, Joe Johnson Jr, and Jennifer (John) Partlow. Beloved grandchildren include Vega and Vika Whetstone, Jeromy Rowe, Isabella Johnson, and Mark and Ryne Partlow.

Surviving sisters include Carol Mason Bollinger (John) and Alison Mason Butler (David) . Nieces and nephews include Les (E.J.) Butler, Evan Butler, Sean (Katrina) Bollinger and Ava Bollinger and great nieces and nephews Rhett, Benson, and Ezra Butler and Carrie. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to a charity of your choice.

Sandra was always full of life and so much fun. I only met her twice but you could tell she was a good person who loved her mom and dad and her sisters. I'm sorry for Carol's and Alison's loss - nothing can replace a sister. Prayers to you all.
