I met monthly with Newton over a meal that was a social event for an insurance company. I loved talking to him and getting to know him well. He was a people person, sincerely interested in others. We did not have good attendance, but he would always come. He was such a loyal friend to me! You could not help but love him!! I admired him so much. He was so dependable and sincere! He would let me know if he could not come. I learned a whole lot from him personally. He is a Christian and in heaven with his beloved daughter. Thanks for wonderful memories, Newton!!!! You will be missed by many, including me! I will miss our visits and remember you fondly. Carol Severns
