I have known Mildred all of my life and went to East High with both she and Kenneth. Both had a tremendous love for our Lord and each showed it in their own way. The saying, "Opposites attract", was most evident in this marriage and they deeply loved one another. They are together again and Mildred is joyfully showing Kenneth around Heaven. Kenneth was one of the kindest people I ever encountered in my business, community and personal life. A native of Nashville, he cared deeply about the East Nashville community and high school that nurtured him in his youth. His caring nature was evident throughout his insurance career at National Life and Accident where I was blessed with his mentorship for several years. He was a loving father and adored Mildred and I was honored to hear his stories about them on those occasions we saw each other. My condolences to the entire family as you move through this difficult time. His life made so many others better and I hope you may be comforted in some way by that understanding. Warmest regards, Brenda S. Payne
