Disappointingly, the remaining family members here in the Northeast/Midwest region of the country just found out that cousin Rachel passed away in 2017. She was a phenomenal woman and our mother (the late Louise Pegram) loved her immensely and spoke about her often. Sadly, the distance between us in terms of living in different states prevented us from being able to spend more time with each other, but all of us had great respect and love for Rachel. So glad our mom had the chance to see and spend quality time with Rachel in the late 1990's there in Tennessee before our mom passed away in 2001.
