Sherri Early posted:

I'm so thankful to God for the beautiful times I was able to spend with Mrs. Tiny. She always had a smile and some beautiful words about how much she loved our Lord God. I know it was in Gods plans for me to live next door to her for a few years, I learned so much from her . To me she was so strong in her faith and a true Angel that I looked up to. I will never forget the homemade salmon croquettes and Chocolate pie she made just for me ❤️ I Loved you dearly Mrs. Tiny, and I will see you again someday ❤️ My heart will miss you till then.
