I did not know Karen but I think I knew her brother Philip. Did Philip attend Inglewood Elementary for 4th or 5th grade? My condolences, very belatedly.

Oh my!! What a reward from our Lord for Karen my beloved little sister-in-law (in stature only) a devoted mother to Neil, mother-in-law to Amanda, grandmother to Savannah & Austin to be taken home on Mother's Day to the loving arms of her loving God & then too be embraced by her mother for whom she was almost her mothers sole care giver for the last days of her mothers life, then to be greeted by her brothers Lawrence & Ted and her sister Doris, HOW CAN WE TAKE IT ALL IN? As the song says only through "The Love of God." Karen, my prayer is that your love of the Lord Jesus Christ & the dedication to your family will be instrumental in others coming to Jesus.

Karen loved her family and the Lord. She knew where she would spend Eternity and had confidence in her Salvation. She was a quiet woman, but when she spoke you knew it was important and worth listening to. Rest In Peace, my Dear sister.

Karen was a sweet sweet lady who adored her son and he adored her. Rare to see such a strong respect and love for a mom. Heaven gained an angel. We love you Neil and are here for you always.

We always remembered our first time to Kroger for Karen, she had been in the hospital and could not go herself. Karen gave us a list we got to the store and realized out we did not know what she wanted. She had put down six drinks we called she told us what kind, after we hung up realized she said 10 peaches so called her back again. It was so funny I think we stayed on the phone with her till we had everything on the list. We decided to make sure what the list said before we went to the store from then on. Karen was a sweet lady and good friend to Paul and myself. We are so sorry Neil you lost your Mom on Mother's Day. If you or Amanda need us let us know God bless your family.
