Charles M. Vance posted:

Adam I am very sorry about the death of your father. I can relate to this moment due to the death of my parents. Your dad was a true Christian. He did an excellent job in raising three boys. His legacy is in you being a faithful Christian, an excellent husband to Heather and a great Christian example to your children. You have nothing to be ashamed of in the type of life your dad lived. You will have many happy memories of your parents. Adam if it had not been for your devoted and passionate care for the last 4 years since his stroke and the death of you mom he would not have lived a dignified life. JESUS LOVES YOU
