Passed away on Wednesday, July 4, 2018. Lucy was born in Nashville, Tennessee and lived most of her life in East Nashville and Donelson. She was preceded in death by her father, Frank Gresham, and her mother, Bessie Gresham. She spent her working years with both the city and federal government. She was a friend to all and never said a bad word about anyone. Lucy was a true Christian lady who loved life and made the best of whatever circumstances she encountered.

She is survived by special lifelong friends, Gary and Claire Hart. A special thanks to the nurses and attendants, in the memory care unit at Mary Queen of Angels.
