I don't know what prompted me to look up Clarrissa after about 50 years but it knocked me for a loop when I saw the obituary. I met Clarrissa when we served together in Okinawa. We always gathered at her place to play cards. It was comforting to have a place to gather while across the pond. Clarrissa always welcomed company. I even went to visit her once when she was at Ft Bragg & I was at Ft Jackson. We loss touch but I needed to express my sadness at her loss even if it's 2 years later and also express how highly I thought of her. I just wish I could have told her.
