Mrs. Laura Jung Hubbard

MAY 28, 1974 - DEC 15, 2018

Laura Jung Hubbard entered this life on May 28, 1974 and was welcomed into Heaven on December 15, 2018. She is preceded in death by her unborn baby boy. She is survived by her loving parents, Ralph and Linda Jung, and brother, Jason (Gina) Jung (Evansville, Indiana.) She is also survived by her husband of 21 years, Ryan Hubbard and sons Adam Cole, Jason Luke, Adrian Samuel, and Jacob Brock. Laura was born and raised in Evansville, Indiana where she attended Francis Joseph Reitz High School. Upon graduating in 1992, she attended Indiana University (Bloomington). There she earned a degree in Elementary and Special Education in 1996. Laura married her high-school sweetheart, Ryan, on March 15, 1997. Laura taught school in Stanfield, Arizona where she and Ryan made their home immediately after they wed. From there, they spent eleven years in Memphis, Tennessee where she taught second grade at Highland Oaks Elementary. Laura and Ryan were faithful members of Bellevue Baptist Church. In 2009, they made their home in Hendersonville, Tennessee. They were active members of Long Hollow Baptist Church where they taught a kindergarten Sunday school class for seven years. She was an avid homeschooler of her four boys. Those who were blessed enough to call her friend know that her physical beauty was only surpassed by her love for Jesus, Ryan and her boys. She was a steadfast follower of Christ and pointed everyone she met to Him. Her love for Ryan was strong and inspiring; her love for her boys unending. She desired to be known as a lover and follower of Jesus, wife, mom, and faithful friend and encourager. "Well done, my good and faithful servant." Matthew 25:21 Laura will be deeply missed by a host of dearly loved friends and extended family. The comfort of visits is welcomed by the family on Wednesday, December 19 from noon until 4PM in the chapel at Long Hollow Baptist Church in Hendersonville, TN. A service to celebrate Laura's life will follow. Pete Jung, Den Jung, Ron Jung, Jason Jung, Chad Jones, and Jason Strickland will serve as pallbearers.

Mr. Ryan, you and Mrs. Laura had my son in Sunday school last year. I always asked her, how Zak did. (I feared he was too wild!) She always told me he was great and that she had 4 boys, so she was used to it! We had a rough school year, so she always made me feel better as a parent! I am so thankful for you both for dedicating your time to love other kids. My heart breaks for you all. I pray God will carry you through this and help your hearts heal. Love and prayers from the Doeden family.

To the entire Hubbard Family and Jung Family:I am sorry to say I did not know Laura but grew up around the entire Hubbard Family both at church, through school and sports. I am so sad to hear of Laura's passing and I am sorry for the loss for both of your families. Having known Ryan, I am quite sure Laura was a wonderful woman. May God grant her peace in heaven and her families peace on Earth.Greg Given and FamilyWonder Lake, IL

I am so thankful to have known Laura briefly and the last time I saw her was in the summertime on a visit to TN. Her last words to me on Oct 1 were that of thanks and optimism. I have a heavy heart but also know that she is in the glorious presence of our Father. My deepest condolences.

I have known Laura and both families for many years. My heart aches for the separation you feel, but the joy and promise of reuniting in heaven is real and true. Legacy Five sings a song that reminds us "We'll be with you much longer than we'll be without you." Thinking of you, Linda.

I remember this year when we had a hard day in the midst of my spouses recovery from heart attack and I called her around 7 am, needing someone to pick up my kids. She joyfully said " I just need to get out of my pajamas, and I will be there." That is Laura, always rising in the morning to serve this world straight out of her pajamas.

I'm so very sorry to hear about Laura. Another good heart taken way too soon. Rejoice in the fact that she is with the father without pain or worry, waiting until she is reunited with loved ones in eternal life. I will keep Ryan, the boys, and the entire Hubbard/Jung families in my thoughts and prayers.
