Glen & I are so sorry to hear about Mack passing away. Dad & Mom, Jabo & Ann, sure thought a lot of him, as we all did. You could always count on him to have a big smile at the Savely family reunions.

I remember when I would stay at Aunt Lena's home Mack and I would pal around, fish at the pond or creek. We would go into Red Springs to the skating rink. One summer when I was down there Mack and I cut tobacco for Mr, Coy Wilson. We always had a good time. Roger Wilson

I'm remembering you now and you know I am there in spirit but God tells me "your brother will understand" as things were settled the last time we spoke. I will forever miss our lengthy conversations of remembering "back when" Knowing you as a good brother and we will meet face to face and know how we love each other
