I have so many memories of just regular day-to-day life, and of holidays and special moments. The things that stand out are her unfailing warmth, generosity, kindness, intelligence and sense of duty, but my favorite part of her was her amazing charm, wit and humor. She was just so smart, and it really felt like an accomplishment when her eyes twinkled at you. She just had a knack for helping you laugh at almost any situation, but also getting you to see the work you needed to put in. She helped me grow in ways she probably couldn't have fathomed. I am eternally honored to have known her, and so grateful to her for helping me raise such a fine son. Thank you so very much, Michelle. Rest now. You are a legend among legends and without a doubt, truly one of my heroes.
