I was surprised to her of his "graduation". He was a gentle spirit in my experience and a great father-in-law to my best friend J. H. Winchester who I first met in the early 1970s. I was with J. when he met Mr. Gregory's daughter Susan. It is sad to lose so many of their family members: J., Hannah, Gus, (J. and Susan's younger daughter), Susan, Mrs. Gregory and now "Toby". But, looking on the brighter side, they are having a grand reunion in heaven and one day we will rejoice when we join them on that eternal day. I had hoped to get by and see both of them, but life involves many crooks and turns you don't expect. May God give you Marsha, Rachel and the rest of you comfort now and patience for that future reunion to end all reunions. Randell
