Ms. Marvine Gray Jennette

SEP 21, 1937 - JUN 3, 2019

Marvine Gray Jennette, age 81 of Hermitage, Tennessee, passed away on Monday, June 3, 2019. She is preceded in death by her parents, Marvin and Esther Barnes, and her husband William Ellis Jennette. She is survived by her sons Andy Jennette (Mary) and Russell Jennette (Josie), her grandchildren Jaquisha Jawan and Nelson Mendez Jr., and her great-grandchildren Jason and Jaylen Sloan.

Marvine could be best described as simply an angel. She had such a kind and generous spirit. She loved people, and never met a stranger. She was an amazing mother, as she filled the role of both mom and dad while she was raising her boys. Her boys were her pride and joy, and of all the folks who knew and loved Marvine, they will miss her the most. Marvine also loved the outdoors, and she enjoyed anything to do with the outdoors. Her true outdoor passion however, was fishing. You could almost always find Marvine out on the water, whether she was out on the boat crappie fishing, or on the banks searching for baits.

A visitation will be held for Ms. Jennette on Saturday, June 22, 2019 from 9am – 12:30pm with a graveside service to follow in Historic Spring Hill Cemetery at 12:45pm. Spring Hill Funeral Home and Cemetery has been entrusted with the final care of Ms. Jennette. 5110 Gallatin Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37216. (615) 865-1101. “Where Nashville Comes to Remember.”

If you have ever fished with Andy or Russ you know about the 9 o'clock check in calls on Thursday nights. Didn't matter what was going on she always knew where her boys were. And you talk about fishing and she was ready to go. Mrs. Marvine was the sweetest most kind person to any and everyone. I read from someone earlier she didn't know a stranger and that was a fact. Now I know why Andy and Russ are so easy to get along with, they get it from their momma! My prayers and Condolences go out to the Jeanette family in this time of mourning but also a ray of sunshine knowing their guardian angel is now on duty watching from up above.

Marvine was a Loving Strong woman that gave the world two stand up sons Andy & Russ. Anyone Marvine would meet could tell instantly what type of person she was. One that would put anything & everthing aside and just be that loving woman we all know her as. Ms. Marvine has left a special mark on my heart and will be forever missed.Sending Love for the Jennette Family!

I met Marvine 35 years ago when I was a child. She was always so kind to us kids in the neighborhood. As time went on I would drop in to visit Andy and Russ at their body shop and was always so happy to see "Ma" she was a treasure of a woman, I will never forget her words of wisdom. Rest In Peace Ma
