Granny I love you so much! You were always upfront about any and everything. You never sugar coated your words. That's one of the things I loved most about you. You watched me grow up and make mistakes and scolded me when I did stupid things. One of my fondest memories--- making homemade biscuits everytime you came to visit us or when we came home for a visit...you always let me have the last one. You have watched my children grow from infancy into teenagers...you shared your love of Greenbay with my oldest son, Martin. I smile everytime I think of Mark and how much he made you chuckle because he is such a handful. I can still remember you telling me Maegan would be a girl of her own--smart, independent and ready to take on the world. We each carry a piece of you with us Granny, although your physical body is gone...I know you are looking down from Heaven watching us. We love you and we will see you again one day.

Linda Faye Groom sent a virtual gift in honor of Mildred.

My fondest memories of Millie was while growing up. She was always willing to listen and give good advice not matter what the problem was. She a very nice a caring person from the day I met her. I really looked forward to just setting down over a cup of coffee and talking just about anything. She was a wonderful mother, wife and friend. Rest in Peace Millie, I will see you again before too long. With love, know you will be missed by everyone who has ever come in contact with you on a person level.
