One more picture. This is an artist's rendition of when someone meets Christ for the first time, and I can only imagine Aunt Sue running into his arms with tears in her eyes and him welcoming her to her eternal home, saying "Well Done Good and Faithful Servant"

Aunt Sue was always the "have fun and laugh adult" even as we all got older. I'll miss her huge, warm and loving smile that made you feel special, even when she was struggling with so much in life. I know everyone there already welcomed her into heaven, some yelling "TACKY-TACKY" and I can already smell the bacon she's making upstairs for everyone. Will miss you until its my turn to go to Paradise Aunt Sue.
