Tammy Reynolds posted:

Lord I just want to thank you for giving me this sweet Angel for the 50 years that I was blessed to have her. She has taught me and has given me so much of herself in my life. She was a wonderful cook and loved her cowboy shows and movies. Her favorite channels were 161 Starz western channel and 91. At night when she would go to bed she would listen to WSM radio channel 650 am. She loved Mr. Eddie Stubbs and enjoyed all of the shows that would air. And she did get to meet Marty Stewart when she worked down town at the Tennessee Cafe up from the Ryman. Marty was opening up with Earl Scruggs and Lester Flatt. She said he was nervous to be going on that night. She met Roy Acuff and waited on him alot at the cafe. She said that he and his band were so kind to her. One of her favorite flowers were African violets and orchids. She was just a sweet, sweet heart and I have been so truly blessed to have her for my mother. I know that I will see her again one day and will be looking forward to that day. Thank you Momma.
